12-week session

Young Rembrandts Elementary and Cartoon Drawing : ALL NEW LESSONS every session!

Young Rembrandts teaches drawing, the fundamental skill of all visual arts. Students are presented with NEW subject matter each week. Through the proven teaching method, artists create this same subject while being introduced to various art skills and vocabulary. Artists are encouraged to practice their skills by re-drawing these subjects using their own creativity. Children develop increased patience and focus while gaining confidence and ability to create their own masterpieces.

Student Council allows student leaders in 3rd-8th grade to make a difference, share ideas, and help our students and campus. STUCO members help plan school events and spirit weeks, fundraise for various school needs, and work to ensure a positive school experience for all students. All students are welcome who desire to build leadership skills and teamwork. Students must sign a contract and uphold STUCO pillars to remain an active member. Elected and appointed roles are also available for students.

There will be a STUCO information meeting on Monday, August 12th at 8am in room 214. All students interested in Student Council (STUCO) are highly encouraged to attend this meeting.

Buddy the Ball Tennis Club brings an engaging and entertaining approach to tennis, with Buddy as our mascot and the main character in our books, we spark the imagination in kiddos. Our multicolored wristbands are similar to the colored belts in martial arts. Our athletes feel achievement as they progress and learn. Buddy's Tennis Class builds confidence, and creates a feeling of belonging to a team. Fun prizes too! Our coaches are Role models, and our curriculum is proven to progress kids to the level needed to compete in junior tennis! MOST importantly, the kids have a blast in Buddy's Tennis Class.

If you will be making other purchases for your club to run successfully, please find the total additional cost and charge appropriately for each student. (If snacks will be offered in your club, please make sure this is stated in the description.)
